FISH & FILMS

THE SHORT FILM FESTIVAL, FISH & FILMS, LAUNCHES A CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Sillages association which is dedicated to cinema promotion, is organising a short film festival, Fish & Films, for both Norman and British films. The festival will take place in Granville, Normandy, from 29th to 31st January 2021. Fish & Films is now launching a call for entries.

ORIGINS OF THE FISH & FILMS PROJECT

Fish & Films comes from the wishes of the two founding members of the Sillages association to create a cinema event in Granville and more specifically, a short-film event. The British-Norman focus resonates with the geography and the history of Granville and, in a wider context, of Normandy with United Kingdom.

THE FILMS WE ARE LOOKING FOR

The association which organises the festival is looking for films :

- shot in Normandy, France or in the United Kingdom or those made by filmmakers, actors or technicians who live or who were born in Normandy or the United Kingdom;
- completed after 1st January 2018 only;
- with a running time from 1 to 30 minutes maximum;
- with French subtitles (for English films) or English subtitles (for French films).

HOW TO SUBMIT APPLICATIONS

The filmmakers wanting to submit their films must send to contact@cinesillages.com before 30th August 2020 :

- the regulations dated and signed
- the registration form, completed and signed
- the private Vimeo or YouTube link to their film
